

Zippy: Ding Dong Daddy (Zippy the Pinhead)

Dingburg stories, plus God and Joan Rivers in an extra-long Zippy collection. In Zippys latest collection of daily and color strips (with additional pages!), the tour of Dingburg continues; we drop in on dozens of Dingburgers and observe them in their natural habitat. The city inhabited entirely by pinheads can be seen as a metaphor for the world we live in today or not. In any event, we watch as Zippy and his fellow Dingburg residents hunt and bag Speedy Alka Seltzer, hear voices in their refrigerators, become addicted to Riboflavin, enjoy fondling newsprint, believe that wahoo bark attracts the opposite sex, and worship Joan Rivers. There's also the extended series in which Zippy has a long (and donut-based) conversation with God and another in which we meet a pinhead poet who bears a striking resemblance to Charles Bukowski. Are we having fun yet? 204 pages of color and black-and-white comic strips
